In Memory of Louise Tyson.

On this Thanksgiving Day our hearts are saddened by the news of the death of our little friend, Louise. Though she lived at Norwood, she visited here many times and will be missed by all who knew her. She had been an asthma sufferer for years, but God in His infinite wisdom hath removed her from our midst. As our friends depart this life we realize that in the midst of life we are in death. God's plans surpass our knowledge. Louise was gentle and mild and of a lovable disposition; always ready to assist in the duties of life. She was loyal to her church and Sunday School. As we mourn her loss here, we trust she has a home in Heaven. Let us strive to meet her there. To the bereaved ones we extend our deepest sympathy.
"What though the flesh decay,
Souls pass in peace away,
Live through eternal day
With Christ above."

Several hundred interested people assembled at Mizpah cemetery Sunday to witness the Woodmen unveiling. Mr. John Bennett made a talk on fraternalism. A quartette composed of "Singing Billy" Gibson, J. F. Platt and the Messrs. Wallace, gave selections. The monuments were over the graves of Messrs. A. C. Landon, W. C. Childress and Gibson Hasty and they were prepared here in the city by the Rockingham Marble Works.

Letter from Robt. Lisk.

The following are extracts from a letter to Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Lisk, of Mangum, from their son, Robert Fletcher Lisk:

"Co. 361, Casual, A. E. F.
U. S. A. Camp Hospital, No. 35
England, Oct. 30th, 1918

I am still in this hospital, recovering from a bad attack of pneumonia. Have had a hard time getting well; came near passing out. My side gives me some trouble yet, but the doctor said I would soon be o. k. Have been in bed a little over three weeks. Surely have a good nurse and doctor; they both have been just like a father and mother to me. I will never forget them. And right here let me say that the Red Cross is the grandest agency in the world. All who have ever given to it ought to feel proud of the Red Cross. Our folks back home can't begin to realize the good it is doing for us soldiers.
Raining seven days in the week here. Hope I'll be in God's country soon. Don't worry over me. Am doing fine now."

Card of Thanks.

We desire to thank our friends for the kindness shown during the last illness of our sister, Nettie Terry, who died Nov. 29th. The interment was held at the family burying ground near Roberdel Dec. 1st. The kind acts of these friends are appreciated.
